

Privacy

Security

This web site uses security measures to protect against the loss, misuse, and alteration of any information under our control. We store the information in a database in a secure environment at our data/hosting centre.

We will not share, sell, or rent individual personal information without explicit permission or unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to employees managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you publications or emails based on your requests for information.

Information Tracked

At times we will use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our web site. We also may track browser types to help us understand our visitors' needs related to our web site design.

There is an optional section of our web site where input forms require your name, postal address, email address and other information such as preferences. These forms provide the ability to subscribe (opt-in) to receiving future emails from us. If you opt-in to receiving email communications from us, then we may send information to you on our products or services.

Links to other Websites

We are not responsible for the content of any website linked from this website, and do not necessarily endorse the views expressed within them. We cannot guarantee that these links will work all of the time and have no control over the availability of any of these sites.

Notification of Changes

When there is a change to our privacy policy that may impact individual rights or the way we handle their information, we will notify those people who have provided opt-in (permission) to receive email or other communication from us, or who have consented to the collection of information. Any new policy will be posted on our site at least one week prior to taking effect.

If at any point we decide to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify users by way of an email. Users will have a choice as to whether or not we use their information in this different manner.

Cookies

Following an EU directive, the law now requires UK websites to obtain consent from you when cookies may be stored on your computer.

BY USING THIS WEBSITE YOU CONSENT TO HAVING COOKIES STORED ON YOUR DEVICE. YOU MAY WITHDRAW THIS CONSENT AT ANY TIME BY DELETING THE COOKIES AND DISCONTINUING USE.

What are cookies?

A “cookie” is a very small text file that is stored on your device by its web browser. Almost all websites instruct a web browser to store one or more cookies for performance, functional or tracking reasons.

Further information about cookies and how they work can be read on Wikipedia, or on the Information Commissioner’s Office website.

How does this website use cookies?

We use some third-party analytical tools that set domain and third-party cookies.

Can I block cookies?

In its default setup, your web browser will accept all cookies. Privacy can be improved without compromising functionality by blocking third-party cookies. You can set your web browser to disallow cookies from this website too, but it may affect its operation now or if we introduce new features in the future. We hope that you will continue to allow cookies to help us improve the experience our website delivers.
